

William Regenhart a native of Germany and formerly a subject to William Duke of Brunswick appears in open court and applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States of America and appearing that said applicant on the fifteenth day of May A.D. 1832 before the clerk of the Superior Court Circuit Court filed his application under oath of intention to become a citizen of the United States of America and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the oath of Henry Brande and William Bernstein who are known to the Court to be Citizens of the United States and that applicant for the last five years has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States and for the last three years within the State of Missouri and that during that time he has behaved as a person of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and Happiness of the Same Whereof the said William Regenhart declares on oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States of America and that he doth and entirely and absolutely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince Potentate State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to William Duke of Brunswick of whom he was formerly a subject

Therefore it is ordered by the Court that the said William Regenhart be admitted a citizen of the United States of America