

DIED AT CHARLOTTE

Mrs. Aug. Witted Stricken by Apoplexy While Visiting Neighbor –Leaves Husband, Three Sons and Two Daughters—Burial Took Place Monday Morning at Charlotte

Mrs. Anna Maria Witte, Nee Engelbrecht, wife of Aug. S. Witte, died suddenly last Friday at her home at Charlotte, aged 65 years, 8 months, 6 days. Mrs. Witte was stricken with apoplexy Thursday while visiting the home of a neighbor.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at the home and in the Charlotte Evangelical Church, Rev. Dietel and Rev. A. F. Alberswerth officiating. Burial took place in the Evangelical Cemetery at Charlotte.

Deceased was born in 1859 and grew to womanhood near Drake, where she was educated and became a member of the Evangelical Church. In 1879 she became the wife of Aug. S. Witte, to which marriage were born five children, all of whom survive. Mrs. Witte was a good Christian woman, who saw only good and brought happiness to others. To her the precept of a Christian home and community, were a goal in life, and she did her duty in the attainment thereof. The unusually large attendance at the burial services bore testimony to the esteem to which she was held in her community.

Mrs. Witte is survived by her sorrowing husband, her sons Ben W. Witte, of Hickman, Nebr., Otto Witte of St. Louis, son Emil Witte of Hermann, her daughters, Mrs. L. A. Weggener, of Drummond, Okla., and Mrs. A. B. Suenkel, of Ownesville, five brothers, Ernst and Joe Engelbrecht, of Bay, John Engelbrecht, of Stonyhill, Gus Engelbrecht, of Oxford, Nebr., and Wm. Engelbrecht, of Drake, three sisters, Mrs. Henry Berger, of Union, Mrs. Henry Oberg, of Bay, and Mrs. Emma [conclusion of obituary not available]
