

Mrs. Van A. Keriakos

Keriakos-Delardos Rites Are Read

SS. Constantine and Helen Church was the scene of the marriage of Mary Jane Delardos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Delardos, 322 Monroe St., to Van A. Keriakos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Parris of Washington, D. C. Rev. George Kiricoples officiated.

The bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie and carried a bouquet of fiji chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Cheakalos, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mariann Delardos, Miss Helen Delardos, Miss Stella Dikos of Peoria, Miss Barbara Cunat of Brookfield, Ill., and Miss Ethel Stavrakis of East Gary. Mrs. Cheakalos wore a cocktail dress of strawberry silk organza over taffeta, and the bridesmaids were attired in similarly-styled gowns in pale blue.

Dr. Angelo Dalambakis of Dayton, Ohio, best man, exchanged the traditional crowns for the couple. Ushers included Bill Bamis, Dean Pontjeris of East Gary, Tom Thompson of Peoria, Miles Cunat of Brookfield, and Gus Keriakos of Washington, D. C., brother of the bridegroom.

Following the reception at the Crystal Ballroom of the Hotel Gary, the couple left for a 2-week honeymoon trip to Toronto and New York.

The bride, formerly a student in the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago and at Indiana University Gary Center, will obtain her degree from Catholic University in Washington.

Mr. Keriakos was graduated from George Washington University in Washington and served with the U. S. Air Force. He is employed as production planner and coordinator for Melpar, Inc. in Falls Church, Va.
