

It's Kids Day!

Approximately 450 eighth grade youngsters from the city's public and parochial schools visited 15 business establishments, municipal government departments, postoffice, airport and this afternoon were treated to a mock trial at Common Pleas Court as the Kiwanis Club held its annual Kids Day. Postmaster T. R. Regenhardt is showing this Junior High School quintet something of the workings of a modern postoffice, this particular scene at a letter canceling machine. From the left are Stephen Davenport, Stephan Hileman, Kay Kitchen, Louanna Mainard, Postmaster Regenhardt and Patricia Rhodes.
